Dust on the Family Bible.

Rev. Patrick Bradley, preaching upon the prevalent neglect of the bible, said: "Whilst I have walked! through the different families of my congregation, I have found too little contains our right and title to a happy immortality. Many plead that they cannot have the bible always in their hands. True, but in many cases 1 find family bibles lying so unused that, with my finger, I could write damnation upon the covers of them! These things ought not to be."
